If someone sublets his or her home to you

An attestation of approved subleasing

Shows that the person who owns or rents the residence is permitted to sublet it to someone else.

Subletting contract

An agreement between you and the person who sublets the apartment.

If you own your home

Purchase agreement

Shows that you own the residence.

Fee specification

Shows how much you have to pay per month for your home.

Promissory note for mortgage loan

Shows who you have borrowed money from to buy the home, how much you have borrowed and when you will pay it back.

Is everything complete?

Please check one more time that you have given us all necessary details in your application and that you have attached relevant documents. It will help us decide on your benefit.

Report changes

The introduction benefit is based on the details you give us in your application. We must recalculate your benefit if something changes, for example if you move to a new residence, if someone moves in with you or if you get housing allowance. You must therefore report any changes as soon as you know about them. When you contact us, please say that you participate in the establishment programme.
