Information from Arbetsförmedlingen and the unemployment insurance fund

Arbetsförmedlingen provides information to Försäkringskassan that we use to assess your right to compensation and calculate the size of the compensation.

If Arbetsförmedlingen notifies us that you are not entitled to compensation for a certain amount of days, Försäkringskassan will use that information when assessing your compensation for this month.

If you are entitled to activity grant, Försäkringskassan also receives information from your unemployment insurance fund that we use to calculate what amount should be paid as activity grant.
